Since Pivot is designed to respond to IP addresses, one needs to log in from a COE computer in order to establish a PIVOT account. Once the account is established, one can log in with a username and a password from any location. Below is a snapshot of the account creation page. Here, one needs to select FSU as the “Affiliated Member Institution,” as FSU is the institution paying for this service.